

England – language course

My stay in Bournemouth

19.3. – 30.3.2012

Language school Bournemouth and host family

- RLC (Richard language college) – the best in the town – our small group and excellent teacher Mrs. Denise-Anne Judge
- my host family – Mrs. Jackie Searing with her daughter and 2 cats
- I expected, wished and wan new motivation in all directions

Our everyday homework

- listening, speaking, writing, reading
- excellent explained english grammar (level B1+/B2)
- FCE preparation – structure of examination
- day task for ever – practical conversation in the store – PRIMARK
- sunbathing on the beach (22°C)

Spending of free time

- possibilities – trips (half-day and all day) with Discovery Dorset
- our choice with colleagues Markéta Pokorná and Bohdana Glierová
 1. 23.3.2012 – Salisbury-cathedral, Stonehange
 2. 24.3.2012 – London

Old good England

My imagination...

- slim, tall people, good dressed in first-rate cloth, calm with refinement
- roastbeef, lamb and english tee
- school pupils in the uniform, red houses with white windows
- driving on the right side of car, safe ride
- typical Austin mini-coopers, typical red post- and phoneboxis, beautiful lawn and gardens
- another measure and scales

Old good cosmopolitan England

...and reality

- the most of unbelievable fat, small people above all women and young girls
- badly dressed without sense for fashion
- bad, unhealthy food from semi-finished article (everyday morning toast with jam and cornflakes), terrible sandwich bread
- no English cars
- many foreign people (Arabian, Afroamerican)

...but what are the English proud of?

- sence of humor
- beutiful landscape
- english villages with sheep-farms
- many sightseeings
- parks with picknicks
- family – laugh, live, love

A littel bit photos...
